New Beginnings

It's easy for Christians to think that the main part of the biblical story ends with Easter. And certainly it is a dramatic climax. But it's not the end. In fact, in many ways, it's just the beginning.

It's the beginning of the spread of the good news that love is stronger than hate and life is stronger than death. It's the beginning of the message of hope that quickly spreads from Jerusalem to the four corners of the world. And it's the beginning of the ministry and mission of the church, a mission and ministry that stretches from Jesus' first-century disciples to Jesus' 21st-century disciples here at Mount Olivet. And what's amazing about all these beginnings is that they were all accomplished through the words, witness, and work of a few dozen people empowered by the Holy Spirit.

Really! By the end of Luke's Gospel, there are about two dozen or so women and men who have followed Jesus through his ministry, who fell away in terror during his crucifixion, who gathered in fear and trembling after his death, who were the first witnesses of the resurrection, and who were then sent to share the good news with everyone they met. And they did! So that just a few dozen people, empowered by the Holy Spirit, changed the world forever.

The story of those first disciples is told in the New Testament book, The Acts of the Apostles, which is actually the second half of St. Luke's two-volume story about Jesus and the Church. Having followed Luke's story about Jesus (The Gospel of Luke) from December on, we'll turn our attention in May to Luke's story about the early Church (Acts) for the summer.

May seems like an ideal time to focus on the many beginnings Luke tells us about in Acts. It is, after all, a time of many endings and new beginnings in our own lives. Many of our students are about to end their high school career and begin their future in college, the military, or the work force – a transition we celebrate on May 19th with our Baccalaureate Breakfast. Choirs, confirmation, and Sunday school come to an end on the 19th also, and we begin a period of rest and recreation with family time, on vacation, or up at COP. We draw many of the programs that run during the school year to a close, thank our many volunteers, and begin a period of planning exciting new events and activities for next fall. A long, cold winter is finally and fully over (I'm writing while snow is falling fast and furious in mid-April!) and spring and a new growing season begins.

The question I have been thinking about as we approach a month filled with so many beginnings is both simple and far-reaching: If, as St. Luke describes, God accomplished all these new beginnings and spread a message of love and hope that changed the world through just a few dozen people, what might God do with and through the nearly 15,000 disciples who are members of Mount Olivet?

Think about that for a moment. Nearly 15,000 Christians of all ages and a variety of experiences and backgrounds call Mount Olivet their faith home. What might happen if we devote ourselves anew to sharing the good news in word and deed? How many lives might be changed? How much love and hope might we share? How much pain and suffering might we alleviate? How many people might we encourage and support? How might we, in short, change the world again?

Sometimes it's hard to imagine God working through ordinary people like us (even though the Bible seems to strongly suggest that it's ordinary people God usually works through!). One thing that I've realized over the years is that God's dreams are always bigger than my own. So I would invite you to dream this May. Dream of the difference we can make together. Dream of what Mount Olivet might become as invite friends and neighbors to share the life and fellowship we have found here. Dream of the people we might reach through our outreach ministries. And dream of the difference we can make in our communities through our own words, witness, and work empowered by the Holy Spirit.

And after all that dreaming..., get ready for God to do even more than we'd imagined!

Centennial Celebrations: 2020 Vision

How many pastors has our church had? Who directed the first choir? Where did the first services take place? Are there living family members that remember stories from those early days? Where did our logo come from? And... did you know that Reuben and Ruth Youngdahl entertained the entire growing congregation at their home on Lake Harriet Boulevard for many years?

Ever wonder about these and other Mount Olivet facts, figures, and stories? Well, beginning on Rally Sunday, September 8, 2019, at our all congregational kick-off, we will be reminiscing about the rich history of our church as well as looking forward to our next century of service. Celebrations begin this coming fall and culminate in fall of 2020 – a full year of giving thanks for all God has done in and through Mount Olivet and looking ahead in anticipation for what God will continue to do.

The Mount Olivet Centennial Committee is hard at work planning a full year of worship experiences, educational opportunities, fun activities, and service-oriented outreach events. Our goal is to share the wonderful story of Mount Olivet far and wide so as to inform our members and the larger community of the deep-rooted history of a congregation that has been active and dynamic over the past century. Our goal is also to lay the foundations for a second century of service and growth.

We are a congregation that believes God is at work forming us into the people and community the world needs us to be. Founded on January 11, 1920, Mount Olivet today has 15,000 baptized members, over 250 high school students in the Cathedral Choir, two campuses, and six affiliated ministries. Grateful for our past, and focused on the future God is already fashioning, we are excited to welcome you to share our 2020 Vision for a wonderful Centennial celebration!

2019 Mount Olivet Vision Partners Event

The 2019 Mount Olivet Vision Partner event will be held the evening of Monday, June 10, at the American Swedish Institute. If you have a gift in your estate plan and have not told us, please let us know of your kind gesture.

Invitations to this special event will be mailed to all current Mount Olivet Vision Partners. If you have any questions, please contact Mari Carlson, 612.821.3150, mcarlson@mtolivethomes.org.

DEVOTIONS

When Jesus entered Peter's house, he saw his mother-in-law lying in bed with a fever; he touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she got up and began to serve him.

- MATTHEW 8:14-15

This is a wonderful story of Jesus healing Peter's mother-in-law. But did you notice that when she was healed, she immediately arose and began to serve her family and friends? Perhaps this can be an alternative to us, as well. We all come down with a fever from time to time. Or maybe we suffer from other debilitating fevers: fevers of grief, fevers of addiction, fevers of resentment, and fevers of worry. On and on they go. These fevers, too, can lay us flat and keep us from getting up and engaging in the fullness, richness, and beauty of life.

What if we no longer allowed the problems that beset us - physical, mental, or spiritual - from controlling our lives? What if we got up and served, despite our troubles?

When someone asks us how we are doing, what if we responded, "Thanks for asking. My back is still killing me today, but I am helping serve dinner at the homeless shelter and I feel great!" Or maybe we could reply, "I am still waiting for those test results, but I am leading a confirmation group. I know that I am making a difference, so that makes me feel wonderful."

Lives engaged in service offer a model for health and wholeness and purpose. If you're interested in learning about ways to serve here at Mount Olivet, I encourage you to contact Katie Marxhausen, Coordinator of Congregational Engagement, at 612.767.2219 or kmarxhausen@mtolivet.org.

Volunteer Appreciation! Thank You!

THE PARABLES OF JESUS

Midweek Summer Worship 2019

Mount Olivet Conference & Retreat Center

Please join us each Wednesday from June 19 to August 7 for an evening of fellowship, great food, enjoyment of nature and inspirational worship as we explore some of Jesus' parables they find most intriguing, challenging, and potentially life changing.

"Tell all the truth, but tell it slant." These words, from a poem by Emily Dickinson, seem to describe Jesus' favorite way of teaching: parables. Through parables and short stories, Jesus offered his listeners a glimpse into the kingdom of God. But oftentimes these parables were met with confusion. Even today, the meanings of these stories can be challenging to understand and apply to our daily lives.

Are you looking for a way to serve your church in a way that is personally rewarding and provides an avenue to meeting new people? One of the many ways to do just that at Mount Olivet is to volunteer as a Sunday morning usher. Ushers are the first people to greet guests when entering the church.

In addition to creating a welcoming and friendly environment for others, the ushers are responsible for the efficiencies of our Sunday morning worship time together. Come and make some new friends, support the church with your volunteering, and become a part of this important ministry.

W Gronseth Fellowship Hall

Parents of seniors, please register at mtolivet.org

As we look forward to Baccalaureate Sunday, we are incredibly thankful for the senior class of 2019. From counseling various camps, serving our community, and enhancing the worship experience, we are grateful for their dedication and commitment to Mount Olivet. As they move on to new adventures and journeys, a few seniors offered their reflections on what they will take away from their time at our church:

"Over the years, Mount Olivet has been not only a place that allows me to freely discuss my faith but also a place to act out my faith. Through counseling at Cathedral of the Pines camp and singing in Cathedral Choir, Mount Olivet has provided me with platforms to impact others' lives and has taught me to remember that small acts—such as a hug to a camper or a smile to a fellow choir member—can create ripple effects." -Elise Pearson

"Mount Olivet has taught me to open myself to God. I have learned compassion through love and kindness of others. My time with Mount Olivet has taught me not just how to better my relationship with God, but how to also better my relationship with myself and how to carry myself as an individual." -Martin Enfield

"There's something to be said for the importance of being able to foster relationships with people all around you, and the environment at Mount Olivet pushes you to create relationships with others that are deeper than the surface level. With its emphasis on letting go of the chaos of the outside world and, instead, being genuine and present with others in its simple get-away-within-the-city, Mount Olivet has allowed me to learn about and love others while they are being their most genuine selves. This loving atmosphere is something I will be forever grateful for and will continue to attempt to create wherever I go." -Addie Cavender

"Mount Olivet is a place where I can be myself and hang out with people from different communities. Through Cathedral of the Pines camp and Cathedral Choir I have learned how supportive everyone is at Mount Olivet. Even when I feel really blue or stressed, I know I can come to church and feel God's loving presence through the wonderful people here. As I head off for college, I aspire to be as caring and supportive as everyone here at Mount Olivet." -Morgan Spence

SUNDAY SCHOOL DONATE & DO @ MOUNT OLIVET

On Sunday, May 12th, our Sunday School and Choir Sunday School classrooms will partner with VEAP (Volunteers Enlisted to Assist People) and host a Donate & Do toilet paper drive at Mount Olivet. Children are invited to bring toilet paper donations to Sunday School. During class that morning, students and teachers will repack the toilet paper for VEAP.

Toilet paper is a high-need item for VEAP's clients and it's often the first thing cut when families must make tough financial decisions. PASTOR HELGEN and our Young Adult group recently served at VEAP and had a wonderful time working together to help others. Thank you in advance for your donations!

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN: FINISHING STRONG!

GOAL: $13.2 M RAISED: $11.5 M NEEDED: $1.7 M

THE SERVICE OF THANKSGIVING & COMMITMENT IS MAY 19!

Construction of the West Campus addition is underway, and YOUR help is needed to cross the finish line!

"The Congregation Council believes strongly that the West Campus addition needed to be built, so they authorized construction without the project being fully funded, trusting that our members will actively support their decision. Reaching the goal means that we will not have to take out a loan, which saves interest costs, or dip into the endowment fund, which decreases principal and future earnings." – MARY HERSHBERGER THUN

With gratitude for God's gifts, I/we pledge $_____ weekly for _____ years to the Mount Olivet Capital Campaign. I will manage my pledge ...

- ☐ and give via checks (put Capital Campaign on memo line).
- ☐ and give online at mtolivet.org.
- ☐ through the Mount Olivet finance office. Please send an authorization form.

Dear Mount Olivet Members,

The beautiful West Campus addition will help us live into the tremendous opportunity of bringing the gospel of Jesus Christ to more people by providing greater opportunities for worship, education, music, fellowship, youth ministry, and service.

The windows are in, our trademark limestone is going up, and construction workers are now framing and sheet-rocking the beautiful interior. It won't be long until our wonderful West Campus will be humming with activities that support Mount Olivet's myriad ministries.

Please help us to "Finish Strong" with our fundraising and growth in ownership and commitment! It is exciting to announce that we have raised $11.5 million!! Good news, indeed! But, to meet our goal, we still need to raise $1.7 million.

If you have already given, we thank you warmly. If you have not given, please help us "Finish Strong" with a pledge, outright gift, stock transfer, or IRA gift. Fill out the form on this page and mail or drop off at church. Nearly a century ago, a small group of believers committed themselves to growing their faith at Mount Olivet Lutheran Church. We are "Building on Their Strong Foundation" as we prepare for the next generation of believers.

Thank you for your support!

The Conference & Retreat Center Welcomes New Director Theresa Latini

The Mount Olivet Conference and Retreat Center has been extending Christian hospitality to groups from within and outside our congregation for nearly forty-five years. Across that time, it has grown in both its size and the scope of its mission. But even as it has grown, the core values first articulated by Pastor Paul Youngdahl at the establishment of the Retreat Center continue to shape its purpose: that it be a place of natural beauty, Sabbath relaxation and renewal, and magnificent hospitality.

In the years to come, and as the number of retreat centers in the area (and therefore the amount of competition for clients) continues to grow, we will also continue to shape and extend the mission and ministry of this wonderful facility. In particular, we are excited to see the Retreat Center grow from being primarily a wonderful venue which hosts groups to increasingly being a place that also creates and provides programming and other opportunities for personal growth and professional development. Toward this end, I am excited to announce that we have identified and called the next Executive Director for the Retreat Center.

The Rev. Dr. Theresa Latini has significant experience as a teacher, speaker, leader, and administrator. An ordained pastor of the Presbyterian Church (USA), she holds advanced degrees in pastoral care and has taught Congregational and Community Care and Leadership at several seminaries, including Luther Seminary in St. Paul. She also has significant administrative experience, serving both as an assistant dean at Western Theological Seminary (Holland, MI) and most recently as president of United Lutheran Seminary (Philadelphia/Gettysburg, PA). She has received advanced training in facilitating conflict resolution and has worked with numerous congregations and other organizations as a consultant and resource. She is the author of several books related to congregational leadership, small group development, and conflict resolution. A compassionate and insightful leader, Theresa brings with her a vast network of educators and church leaders that will assist her and the whole team at MOCRC in becoming a premiere destination for individual and congregational growth, pastoral education, and professional development. She will begin her tenure at the Retreat Center in mid-May.

My thanks to two groups of people as we prepare to welcome Theresa and her five-year-old daughter, Eleanor, to Mount Olivet. First, I am deeply appreciative for the counsel and insight of the advisory committee that assisted me in calling Theresa to this position: Dan Kahl and Mandie Siems, representing the Retreat Center staff, and Nancy Youndahl, Nancy Lindahl, and Nancy Nash, representing Mount Olivet Church. Second, I am tremendously grateful to the staff of the Retreat Center who have not simply persevered through, but flourished during this time of transition. Well prepared by former Executive Director Carol James, they more than rose to the occasion of keeping the Retreat Center moving forward during this period.

I would encourage the continued prayers of the congregation as we move into this next and exciting chapter for our beloved Conference and Retreat Center. And I invite you to join us this summer for regular mid-week worship on Wednesdays (June 19-Aug 7) as we focus on Jesus' parables in worship and are treated to wonderful meals and warm fellowship in the beautiful setting of the Retreat Center. — David Lose, Senior Pastor

NEW MARSH WALK COMING SOON!

The mission of our Mount Olivet Conference and Retreat Center is, in part, to provide opportunities for guests to expand their enjoyment and appreciation of God's creation. The marsh walk is an important part of that mission. After 30 + years of use, this unique amenity providing access to a small island off the shore of Chub Lake, is in need of replacement. Last fall, demolition was completed thanks to dedicated volunteers.

Installation of the new 425 foot marsh walk, complete with an observation deck and bench, will begin this month. If you can volunteer to help in any way, including installing the railing, please contact Dan Kahl, 952.210.2541, dkahl@mocrc.org. Guests will enjoy the new marsh walk when they come to the mid-week services in June!

Since last summer, generous donors have contributed $105,000 towards the goal of $127,500. There is still time to make a gift, which would be greatly appreciated. Send your check to: Mount Olivet Lutheran Church, Marsh Walk Project, 5025 Knox Avenue South, Minneapolis, MN 55419. For questions about donations, please contact Mari Carlson, 612.821.3150, [mcarlson@mtolivet homes.org](mailto:mcarlson@mtolivet homes.org). Thank you!
