Questions for the Overview with Pastor Ruud Video
1.	Entering into this study of King David, what did you know/remember about David already? Upon viewing/hearing the overview what stands out or surprises you? What does it say about who God is?
2.	David's life is a mixture of faith and doubt, courage and cowardice, success and failure, loyalty and betrayal, good and evil. What does this say to us as his ancestors in faith? What truth does it point to in our relationship with ourselves, each other, and God?
3.	David's life also displays the complex, tension-filled, interconnected relationship of the personal, political, cultural, and religious. How do we see our relationship with God in Christ in personal, political, cultural, and religious aspects of our lives?
