Healing in Mark: “Your Faith Has Made You Well” Mark 10:52

Overview

The healings in the Gospel of Mark:

- invite us to repent, believe in the Gospel, and follow Jesus;
- show strength beyond our own,
- and help us expect the unexpected.

Questions

As you read the healing scriptures found in the Gospel of Mark (listed below), ask yourself these questions:

- How do we see the main character repent, believe the gospel, and follow Jesus?
- How does the story exemplify strength beyond one’s own strength?
- How does the story help us to expect the unexpected?

Further Questions

- What does healing mean to you? Is there anyone you have tried to cure?
- What do you hope for when you are praying someone is healed? Specific things? They will be done?
- Do your prayers seem to go unanswered? Were you mad at God?
- Looking back, were the healings you experienced something you didn't expect? What healing or miracle came out of that experience?
