

Mount Olivet Lutheran Church Worship Notes

Name: _____

Date and Hour of Service (e.g. February 5, 2023, 10:00): _____

Color of the paraments*: _____ Preaching pastor: _____

Which pastor led the liturgical elements (prayers, Creed, etc.)? _____

What Scripture(s) were read? _____

What was the first line of your favorite hymn?

Sermon Title:

In your own words summarize the sermon:

Which story or illustration in the sermon did you find most interesting?

Share any words/ideas you did not understand in the sermon, or questions it raised for you:

When in the service were you most engaged (least bored!) and why do you think that was?

Who came to church with you today and what did they like about worship, or what question(s) did they have? _____

*Paraments are the cloths hanging off the altar, pulpit, and lectern. Their colors change based on the season of the church year (Easter, Pentecost, Ordinary time, Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent, and some festival days mixed in). Notice that the pastors wear cloths (called stoles), too, that should match the paraments.