The Dignity Center

The mission of The Dignity Center is to welcome and support people dealing with financial and housing insecurity on their path to stability. Through a committed team of trained volunteers, The Dignity Center works one-on-one with people to build relationships, help them set goals toward greater self-sufficiency and stability, and develop and implement a plan to reach those goals. Below, please find the link to their webpage for a comprehensive list of ways you can become involved, as well as a direct email link.

Greater Minneapolis Crisis Nursery

Located not far from our Minneapolis Campus, Greater Minneapolis Crisis Nursery's mission is to end child abuse and neglect and create strong, healthy families. Along with monetary support, Mount Olivet has supported this mission by providing volunteers for the Cook for Kids program. This is an amazing volunteer opportunity for groups of 2-6 people per meal, and the Nursery is located not far from our Minneapolis Campus. Below please find a link to their general website for more information and all volunteer and giving opportunities.
